JOHN D. KEITH SCHOLARSHIP IS ESTABLISHED

The memory of a one-time prominent Gettysburg attorney will be immortalized at the Dickinson School of Law, Carlisle, it was announced today by Judge W. C. Sheely, president judge of the fifty-first Judicial District and president of the school.

A scholarship to be known as the John D. Keith Memorial Scholarship has been established at the school. This was made possible by a gift from a friend of the late Mr. Keith's who prefers to remain anonymous. The amount will produce sufficient income annually to provide approximately one half of the tuition for one student.

This year the scholarship has been awarded to James W. Fredericks, of Asburg Park, N. J., a second year student, on the basis of his scholarship and financial need.

Mr. Keith was a prominent attorney here for many years. He started his law practice with the late father of Judge Sheely. When the latter entered Dickinson law school he studied in Mr. Keith's office and shortly after his graduation he became a partner in the law firm of Keith and Sheely. When he was elected judge he resigned from the firm.

Such a session, if it is called, would be asked to deal with the Little Rock school integration controversy in which Faubus is arrayed against the federal government.

The Websters claim they thus had to dispose of 15,300 eggs as best they could and lost money on the deal. TEAMSTERS GET DELEGATE DATA FROM SENATOR

By NORMAN WALKER
MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The scandal-ridden Teamsters Union today received and accepted a bid from the Senate Rackets Committee in Washington to inspect evidence in committee files challenging qualifications of some Teamsters convention delegates.

Dave Beck, Teamster president, revealed an exchange of telegrams with Committee Chairman McClellan (D-Ark.) as the Teamsters opened their faithful convention with a roaring ovation for Beck.

Beck told reporters he received a telegram from McClellan last night saying the Senate committee has evidence in its files that some convention delegates have been chosen illegally. McClellan offered to turn it over to the union.

Engages Attorney
Beck said he replied the union would like to see the data and has assigned a Washington attorney, Martin O'Donoghue, to visit the Senate committee offices in Washington this morning.

Beck said he had assured McClellan that the convention credentials committee is "carefully investigating" the legality of selection of delegates.

"The information you have may be helpful even at this late date," Beck said he wired McClellan.

More than 100 of the convention's 1,929 delegates have been formally challenged before the credentials committee.

Foe Is Boomed
When Beck entered the packed municipal auditorium, the delegates gave him a resounding ovation. He and James R. Hoffa, present Midwest Teamster boss and leading candidate to succeed the retiring Beck as union president, posed together waving at the delegates.

One of Hoffa's four announced rivals for the presidency, Thomas L. Hickey of New York, like Hoffa, a Teamster vice president, was roundly booed when he entered the convention.
John F. English, aging Teamster International secretary-treasurer, got a big hand when he stomped down to the platform on his wooden leg. He also posed shaking hands with Hoffa.

made with the Websters to purchase eggs from 600 hens. That agreement was terminated, the Goldens say in their reply, when the market for turkeys fell off, but an oral agreement was made at that time for hatching of the eggs from the Webster turkeys.

Under the agreement, as listed by the Goldens in their answer filed for them in the prothonotary's office by attorney John MacPhail, the Goldens' undertook to hatch the eggs and from time to time helped in the sale of the poults. Under the agreement the Goldens were to be paid five cents for each of the hatched poults sold.

GIVES DATES FOR XMAS MAILINGS

Adams Countians were reminded today of the dates by which parcels must be sent if they are to reach overseas destinations in time for Christmas delivery.

A. W. Warman, assistant postmaster at the Gettysburg post office, said all packages to soldier or others in the Far East should be mailed by October 15 if the sender wishes assurance that the packages will arrive in time for Christmas.

Mail to Africa and the Near East should be sent from the local office by November 1 and Christmas parcels for South and Central America and Europe should be sent by November 10.

Postmaster Warman said: "Owing to the long sea transit frequently involved in the transmission of parcels, those wishing to send Christmas gifts to persons overseas should mail them early."

"Not only are the parcels often delayed by long sea voyages but there are customs inspections and other formalities that parcels may be subjected to in the countries of their destination which may delay their prompt delivery."

"As a result it is recommended that mailings be made as early as practicable to assure delivery by Christmas day. Senders can be reasonably sure that parcels mailed not later than the dates mentioned will reach their destination by Christmas."

"REVENGE"

I've heard it said, revenge is sweet . . . and gives a peace of mind . . . to folks who have a bone to pick . . . with those who were unkind . . . it is in part a just return . . . for some offense received . . . a form of satisfaction gained . . . by people once deceived . . . it goes like this, you kill my dog . . . and I will kill your cat . . . for vindication is a case . . . of merely tit for tat . . . but somehow I can't go along . . . with what revenge affords . . . because it is a prelude to . . . a wealth of poor rewards . . . and so I try my level best . . . to temper my regret . . . with friendliness that tells me to . . . forgive and to forget . . . as I know well, malicious joy . . . can never be complete . . . for after all is said and done . . . revenge is not so sweet.

Integration generally.

Harry S. Ashmore, a Faubus adversary on integration questions and executive editor of the Arkansas Gazette, said abolition of the school system was a "dreadful" possibility.

Rep. Brooks Hays (D-Ark.) said it was his opinion that the regular troops could be withdrawn and the federalized Arkansas National Guard stationed at Central High.

Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty, asked if he knew anything of a rumored "package deal" whereby Faubus would enforce integration if Eisenhower withdrew the federal troops, said: "I certainly do not."

Ashmore, author of "The Negro and the School" and the nearly completed "An Epitaph for Dixie," said the solution lies in keeping "order by force until the time when the mob cannot form or reform because its leaders are in jail or under bond."

He also said Little Rock would have complied with integration orders had Faubus not interfered. Little Rock was peaceful during the weekend.

Here's How You Can Save More

Since we buy and sell more used furniture than most home furnishing stores in this area, we are constantly on the alert to find resalable merchandise. Right now, however, the demand is greater than the supply. To speed up this trade-in program and also make it easier to buy new furniture, we are going to stage our first storewide "Trade-in Time" event—for a limited time.

The "AT LEAST" allowances are what you can expect for resalable used furniture in trade for new merchandise. If, on appraisal, your trade-in goods are worth more in resale—you'll enjoy a larger allowance... and SAVE EVEN MORE.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO
Property Sold: The farm of the late Jacob Herbst in Cumberland township, has been sold by the executors Samuel and John Herbst, at $29.62 1/2 per acre — 100 acres. Abraham Spangler purchaser.

Mr. Wm. E. Myers has purchased Joseph Cline's Mill (formerly Appleman's) near Bendersville, at $14,000. There are about 90 acres of land connected with the property.

Jacob Hankey, executor of the estate of Philip Shriver, has disposed of the farm of deceased in Cumberland township — about 134 acres — to Samuel Foulk, of Straban township. Price $4,000 cash.

The farm of the late Jacob Bollitz in Mountjoy township — 132 acres — was sold at public outcry, on Saturday week by the Administrator, Peter Bollitz, for $28.03 per acre. Jonathan Young purchaser.

The homestead of the late John Shorb — 27 acres with improvement — in Germany township, was recently sold at public sale by Joseph L. Shorb, Esq., for $4,525. Joseph Pink, Esq., purchaser.

The mill and 65 acres of land belonging to Mr. John Coshun of Germany township was sold to Mr. Michael Kemper, of York county, on the 22d inst. for $4,500.

It is said that our government is in possession of information that Gen. Sam Houston is engaged in the secret expedition fitting out in Texas for the invasion of Mexico. The movement being conducted with more than usual secrecy, full information upon the subject cannot as yet be obtained.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

The Battlefield Memorial Association is continuing its improvements. Last week Mr. Pickering surveyed the ground east of Little Round Top in continuation of the avenue laid out last spring along the western portion of the Union lines. At the annual meeting of the Board of Directors the executive committee was instructed to purchase the well known "wheat field" and adjoining grove, where the fierce struggle of the second of July took place. We understand that the committee have recently concluded the purchase from Mr. Wible.

The H.H. and G.R.R. company has completed the survey of the proposed extension of their road to Round Top for excursion purposes. The line starts at Mr. Mumper's lot on the "tape-worm" and passes Mr. Jacobs chair factory thence out through the farms of D. McMillan, S. J. Codori, &c. to the neighborhood of "Devil's Den." We believe it is the intention to build the road next spring.

A Veteran: Mr. Peter Diehl, of New Oxford, called to see us yesterday and left with us some samples of fine pears grown on a pear tree on his premises. Although the tree is 110 years old, it still bears a good crop every year. Mr. Diehl himself although in his 81st year, is a hale, hearty man, with vigorous mind. He has lived fifty-nine years on the property he now occupies. He has ten living children, widely scattered, but they have been recently visiting the old homestead. On next Saturday they expect to be all together.

A pleasant surprise: Rev. J. K. Demarest, pastor of the Presbyterian church of this place, left on Thursday last with his family on a visit to friends in New York State and thence to Kentucky. Mr. D. has supplied his pulpit and attended to his usual pastoral duties during the summer and now takes a vacation the congregation having given him a furlough of six weeks. The evening before he left Gettysburg Mr. Demarest was presented with a purse of $88 towards paying expenses, the gift of members of the congregation, and evidence of their kindly feeling. These kindly acknowledgments are pleasant experiences in pastoral life. In Mr. Demarest's case it is highly deserved and we happen to know that this gift, like

Today's Talk

ANTICIPATE
The successful man is forever looking ahead. If he is a leader in war, he is anticipating the movements of the enemy, but if he is concerned with that nobler occupation of peace, that habit of anticipating will also be ever before him. He will want to be prepared to meet any emergency.

This can be achieved by forming the habit of anticipating events in which we may be in a position to enter. People who look on the sunny side of things, anticipating food fortune ahead, usually meet that fortune hunting for them!

Anticipate, plan, believe, and you will never be very far from your objective. It is so much easier to win than to fail, for it is then that we deal with positives, not negatives. We go forward because we planned it that way.

All the forces of life and nature are with us then. Ed Howe, the famous Kansas philosopher and editor, once wrote a most valuable little book in which he declared that it was easier to win than to fail. I believe the title of the book was "Success Easier Than Failure." I don't see how anyone can fail if he will habitually seek out the substantial things in life, and anticipate success and happiness rather than the opposite. I have always contended that one's mental attitude is everything or nearly so, no matter who the person might be or the problem at hand.

There are certain persons whose attitude of mind and whose philosophy of life immediately attract us. It may be born to some, but mostly it has been acquired through the habit of anticipation and by a belief in one's own good fortune. Anticipate good fortune and it will smile grandly upon you!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "People"

THE PERVERSITY OF MAN

He would not walk a half a mile if he could get a car;
The distance from his office to his home is much too far;
And going shopping with his wife is more than he can do.

He's always weary from the hunt before the day is through.
But he will wade a running stream for miles, and never pout.
No distance is too far for him when he is after trout.

He would not take a parcel home, a bundle he detests;
He says that wives who make their husbands carry things are pests.
And should he buy a shirt or two, a hat, or brush and comb,
The dealer must deliver them; he will not take them home.

But he will lug a heavy creel and "waders" all about,
A lunch box, rod and landing net, when he is after trout.

Missing Statue Is Discovered In River

DETROIT (AP) — The mystery of the missing statue of author John Burroughs was cleared up yesterday when skindivers found it in the Rouge River near the Fairlane estate of the late Henry Ford.
The heavy bronze likeness, valued at about $20,000, apparently had been rolled from its pedestal at Fairlane by would-be thieves who were unable to remove it.
The 3½-foot statue was sculptured by C. S. Pietro, and was purchased by Ford in 1919. Burroughs, a writer and naturalist, was a close friend of Ford.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Deliberations will be resumed today by the six men and six women of the Confidential Jury after a day of rest. The jury began deliberations Sept. 17.

Nab 2 Boys, 12, After Big Rampage

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Two 12-year-old boys were arrested here after a rampage that police said included:

A store burglary, setting fire to a school, setting fire to a truck and looting at least eight automobiles.

Police said the school and truck fires were put out quickly.

They said the boys' only loot from the store was a box of wooden matches.

YANKEE'S CAR KILLS TWO JAPS

ITAZUKE, Japan (AP)—A 1952 sedan owned by an American sergeant crashed into a motorcycle then struck and killed two pedestrians Saturday night. The Air Force and Japanese police said today.

U.S. Air Force officials said the car was owned by Staff Sgt. Winston Eley, 32, Philadelphia. He denied all knowledge of the incident, police said.

The car was found abandoned several miles from the scene of the accident yesterday morning.

Officials at Itazuke air base said Eley returned to the base by taxi shortly after midnight. He was hospitalized at 2 a.m. for what Air Force doctors diagnosed as a severe stomach ulcer.

Air Force authorities said Eley would be available for questioning by Japanese authorities while hospitalized and would be released to them for questioning when his condition improved.

Japanese police said the sedan, traveling at great speed on a wet highway, first struck the motorcycle, seriously injuring a 34-year-old Japanese physician and his wife.

Less than a mile farther down the road, police said, the car struck and killed a 50-year-old woman, then careened across the highway and fatally injured another woman.

TRAFFIC DEATHS RISE IN AUGUST

CHICAGO (AP)—The nation's traffic deaths increased in August for the first time since last November, the National Safety Council said today.

The traffic death toll last month of 3,790 not only was 5 per cent higher than the toll of 3,610 in August last year but was the highest August toll since 1941 and the second highest for that month in the council's history. The total in August 1941 was 3,954.

The council said the increase was attributed, in part, to the fact there were five Saturdays in August this year, including one during the Labor Day weekend.

Despite the increased toll in August, the council said highway deaths for the first eight months this year were 2 per cent lower compared with the corresponding period last year, 24,730 against 25,200.

The council reported that travel in the first six months was up 3 per cent, producing 5.5 deaths for every 100 million miles of travel, lowest ratio in the nation's history for a comparable period.

Three Touchdowns In Final Period Give Bullets 19-0 Win Over Bisons In Opener

Gettysburg College's 19-point surge in the final quarter against Bucknell turned a fine defensive game into a 19-0 rout for the Bullets before about 10,000 fans at Hershey Saturday night in the 10th annual Rotary Chocolate Bowl benefit.

Frank Capitani, Gettysburg's great back, took personal charge of the game midway in the third quarter after both teams had battled mainly in the middle of the field for the most of the time. Frequently carrying two and three Bison gridders with him, Capitani ground out 78 yards, 43 of them coming in the late third period drive which culminated in a touchdown by Halley on the first play of the final period.

Coach Eugene Haas, in his first head collegiate coaching assignment, displayed a hard-hitting, hard-tackling, hard-blocking Gettysburg team did everything right except one—the forward pass.

Eighth Straight

The win was Gettysburg's 13th over the Bisons in a rivalry which began back in 1893. However, the Bullets have dropped 27. Since the revival of the gridiron sport following World War II the Bullets and Bisons have each won six games. It was Gettysburg's eighth straight win over a two-year period.

Once Gettysburg denied the scoring column on the first play of the final period it was all over but the shouting as the Bullets fine defense kept pressure on Coach Harry Lawrence's typical Bucknell team the entire final quarter. Even a block kick which gave Bucknell a first down on the Gettysburg 29 didn't faze the Bullets as they held and took over on their own 21.

Dick Stravolo kicked off for Gettysburg to Jack Brothers who returned to his own 29. After three running plays gained but eight yards, Aggar punted to Gettysburg's Don Halley on the Gettysburg 27. The Bullets offense showed a little more power than opponents as they drove to the Gettysburg 39 on four plays but a 15-yard penalty for illegal use of the hands moved the ball back to the 24. After two running plays failed to gain much ground, Capitani punted to Brothers on the Bucknell 38.

Defensive Battle

These first minutes of the opening quarter set the tone for the entire first half as neither team could muster any kind of an offense against hard-tackling opponents. The entire Gettysburg line, from end to end, and the back, permitted very little yardage. The Bullets appeared weak in pass defense at times during the first half as Bucknell could gain only through the air.

Midway through the second quarter Gettysburg had its first opportunity to score when Dick Stravolo, just reinserted into the game, intercepted a Bucknell pass and returned it to the Bison 21. Capitani hit left tackle for four and Stravolo, on two carries, sneaked for a first down. Capitani moved the ball to the 10 but here Bucknell blocked and finally took over on its own 14. Bucknell's deepest penetration of the first half was to the Gettysburg 40 midway in the opening quarter but here Gettysburg held the Bisons for downs as Don Harman spilled Charles Aggar for no gain on a fourth and two situation.

All the fireworks were saved for the second half and most came in the final quarter. Bill Walasek kicked off to Gettysburg's 12 and Halley returned to his own 34. On the first play Earl Yost was roused up and Bucknell penalized 15 Gettysburg failed to pick up any appreciable yardage and Capitani punted out on the Bucknell 11.

Bisons On Drive
The Bisons then showed their finest offensive thrust. Aggar, Hettche and Fitzsimmons ground out a first down on the Bucknell 21. After Hettche was stopped for a two-yard gain, Hettche went around right end for 22 to the Bison 45. Fitzsimmons and Hettche moved the ball two yards on two plays, and then Petteerman passed to Aggar for nine. After Hettche picked up four, the Bullets held and Aggar punted to the Gettysburg 13.

Gettysburg's take charge guy, Capitani, took over at this point. Yost went wide around right end for five and Capitani drove through center for five more. Halley failed to gain around left end. Capitani gained ten, seven and five on three successive carries. Yost slanted through right tackle for four but Gettysburg was offside and penalized to its own 44. Capitani gained nothing but Hettche, back for an apparent pass, handed to Yost on the ancient statue of Liberty who moved to the Bucknell 44. Capitani charged right tackle for three and a first down on the Bucknell 41. Halley, Yost and Hettche made it a first down on the Bucknell 30 as the Bisons called time.

Capitani bulled his way around right end for five and then raced around left end for four. Yost went wide around right end, cut back up the middle for 11 and a first down on the Bison nine. Capitani hit the center for four, as the quarter ended.

Halley Goes Over
On the first play of the final period, Halley took a pitchout from Hettche and went wide around his right end for Gettysburg's first score of the 1957 season. Capitani added the extra point with a perfect placement.

Bucknell had its opportunity several minutes later when Harry Binger's punt was blocked and recovered on the Gettysburg 29. In four plays the Bisons moved but eight yards and Gettysburg took over.

Stravolo sneaked for three and Capitani added three more through the center. Halley raced around end for a first down on the Gettysburg 33. Halley turned the other end for 26 to move to the Bison 41. After Yost and Capitani each picked up three, Halley, on a draw play, raced through left tackle and dashed 35 for the second touchdown in 6:20. Capitani's attempted placement was wide to the left.

Stravolo Intercepts

The Bullets scored their final touchdown after Stravolo made his second interception of the game and returned to the Bucknell 16. Stravolo, Capitani, and Stravolo twice moved the ball to the Bucknell five and a first down. It took Gettysburg four plays but George Greiner went around right end for the score in 11:40. Stravolo's extra point attempt was blocked.

Gettysburg was in possession the Bucknell 47 as the game ended.

The victory was truly a team affair with every lineman turning in his share of tackles and the backs looking good on both offense and defense. Phil Harman's play was terrific but so was the play of the other linemen: Chet Knight, Al Kempton, Dick Rowan, John Yohn, Bob Barkley, Marty Hoffman, Stan Musser and all the replacements. While Capitani and Halley stole much of the offensive spotlight, the work of Yost, Stravolo, and Hettche left little to be desired in their running and tackling.

Gettysburg's quarterbacks had trouble completing passes as they attempted seven and connected on one—a flare pass to Capitani and a loss of four yards came on the play as Fitzsimmons potted it and hit Capitani hard as he caught the ball. Gettysburg's only defensive weakness appeared to be pass defense as the Bisons completed six of 13 attempts, but most of these completions came in the first half.

Meet Terrors Friday

DECISION DAY AT LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES (AP)—This is the day of decision for the Los Angeles City Council in the drive to move the Brooklyn Dodgers here.

Dodgers President Walter O'Malley must have a guarantee from the council on the proposed contract between him and the city before he appears at a National League meeting Tuesday.

Ten of the 15 council members are in favor of the contract. That is enough to approve the agreement but unless there is unanimous approval on the first reading today the matter must go over seven days.

Councilman Gordon Hahn says he has a plan by which the council

GIANTS, BEARS START SEASON WITH DEFEATS

The Associated Press

Order of the day in the National Football League today was disorder after erstwhile second division clubs took form for a ride.

The New York Giants, defending champions, and the Chicago Bears, 1956 Western titlist, yesterday were saddled with defeats to start the league's 38th season.

The Giants turned down an opportunity to tie and lost a battle of booters to the reconstructed Cleveland Browns 6-3. The Bears discovered the Green Bay pre-season ballyhoo had a solid base in a 21-17 loss to the Wisconsin club which was undefeated in exhibition play.

The Chicago Cardinals, losers of five of six exhibitions, turned out favored San Francisco 20-10 to open the season. Coach Buddy Parker's patchwork Pittsburgh team rolled 28-7 over the Washington Redskins and the Baltimore Colts showed unnoticed power in grinding Detroit 34-14.

For form players, the Los Angeles Rams squeezed past winless Philadelphia 17-13.

The Browns' Lou Groza kicked a 47-yard field goal with 21 seconds remaining to end a toe-to-toe duel with the Giants' Ben Agajanian. They had traded field goals in the second period, Agajanian from 32 yards, Groza from 29.

Parilli Lights Fans

Babe Parilli, back at Green Bay after a trade to Cleveland, delighted a full-house of 32,132 at the dedication of the Packers new stadium.

Kentucky Babe saw Gary Knafele on his knees in the end zone in the fourth quarter. He answered Knafele's prayers with a six-yard scoring pass for the winning margin.

Cardinals' fullback Joe Childress went 39 yards in the second period against the San Francisco 49ers to build a 14-10 lead for Chicago and Pat Summerall kicked two second half field goals.

Quarterback Earl Morrall arrived from the 49ers in time to practice six times with the Steelers. He learned enough to throw scoring passes of 25, 42 and 42 yards in Pittsburgh's win against Washington.

Earl "Jug" Girard, 10-year veteran halfback, caught two of Morrall's touchdown passes and Ray Mathews caught the others. Eddie LeBaron threw 38 yards to Jim Paolety for Washington's one six-point.

Quarterback John Unitas threw four times for touchdowns in Baltimore and spoiled George Wilson's coaching debut for Detroit. Wilson took over after Parker abruptly resigned Aug. 12.

Under quarterback Norman Van Brocklin, the Rams moved to a 14-6 halftime lead. Billy Barnes, speedy Wake Forest rookie, scored for the Eagles in the fourth period to bring the game to 14-13.

Paige Coltrin kicked a 37-yard field goal with three minutes to go to ice the Rams' triumph before 62,506, largest NFL crowd of the day, at Los Angeles.

LEWISTOWN HI IS UNBEATEN

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Lewistown, with an unblemished record in two games, held first place today in the 31-team Class A of the Western Pennsylvania High School Football Conference.

Lewistown earned the sport with a 13-7 victory over Tyrone Friday night. The pace-setting eleven holds a 500 point rating, based on won-lost records and caliber of opposition.

Indiana's defending champions have not opened conference play. Teams must play five conference games to be eligible for the title.

Punxsutawney holds the second spot with 475 points. Although idle in conference play over the weekend, Punxsutawney has won two games against circuit opposition.

Tied for third with 450 points are Huntingdon and Somerset. Both have 2-0 conference records. Lock Haven, with two wins and a tie, is in fourth place.

Bellefonte (2-1) was rated fifth and Hollidaysburg (3-0) sixth.

Cresson took the top spot among 28 Class B teams in the first week of ratings. Cresson earned 500 points on a record of two victories and no defeats.

Richland Twp., undefeated in three games, was second with 493 points. Beaverdale, also undefeated and unbeaten in three contests, was third with 453 points.

Richland rule can be followed and O'Malley still given concrete assurance today that the contract will be adopted.

He says he will submit a resolution which will commit the 10 favorable votes to support the contract when it comes up for final adoption Oct. 7.

"This commitment," Hahn said, "will assure O'Malley of the final contract terms and allow him to announce to the National League his decision to transfer his franchise to Los Angeles."

McGraw's Widow And Fans Cry At Last Giants' Game

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—It was a sad day for New Yorkers. Many a tear was shed by the 11,606 who came to say farewell forever to their Giants and the historic Polo Grounds.

Throats choked with emotion yesterday afternoon when Dusty Rhodes, hero of the 1954 championship, grounded out for the final out in the last of the ninth.

A few moments earlier the fans gave Willie Mays a standing ovation as he came to bat for the last time. Obviously, he was affected. Willie, who had two hits, hit back weakly to the pitcher.

"For the first time in my career, I was so nervous the bat was shaking in my hands," Mays said later in the clubhouse.

Stoneham Is Boored

Horace Stoneham, owner of the club which has announced a move to San Francisco for next season, was nowhere to be seen. When his name was mentioned during the introduction of oldtime Giants, he was roundly booed.

After the last out, a crowd gathered at home plate, busily excavating the plate. Nobody waited for the players to reach the clubhouse. They had to run for the steps with fans clutching for their hands, their hats or anything they could touch.

Down came the padding on the center field wall that has protected the acrobatic Willie Mays from injury.

For the first time since the triumphant day in 1951 when Bobby Thomson won the playoff game from Brooklyn with his pennant-clinching home run, the fans stormed the clubhouse steps.

McGraw's Widow Cries

"Stay Giants, stay," read a large banner in the hands of those who came to say goodbye.

The swirling mob, milling on the turf in the fast gathering dusk, started to chant:

"We want Stoneham . . . with a rope around his neck."

When they introduced the old time greats before the game, Mrs. John McGraw, widow of the most famous of the Giant managers, broke down and cried. George Levy, now 81, added a touch of nostalgia to the occasion when he announced the batteries through a megaphone as he did 50 years ago before the advent of public speaking systems.

Lose Last Game

Perhaps Bill Rigney, the current manager, best summed up the sentiments of all.

"It sort of got me," he said. "I'll probably burst out crying any minute."

Last times always are sad. This was an extra special last time. To make it worse, the Giants lost to Pittsburgh 9-1. When they opened the Polo Grounds on July 8, 1889, they beat the Pirates 7-5.

"California here we come."

YANKS TO PUT SKOWRON'S BACK TO TEST TODAY

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Yankees planned to put Bill Skowron's ailing back to a test today while Manager Casey Stengel tried to figure out he'll have at first base if Skowron can't make it for the World Series opener against the Milwaukee Braves Wednesday.

The American League champions, entering their eighth season in Stengel's nine-year reign, also wanted to get a fresh line on Mickey Mantle's bum legs during the work out at Yankee Stadium, out Mantle is already a considered a definite starter.

The big question is Skowron. One of the Yankee sluggers and a righthanded hitter Stengel would like to have in the lineup against southpaw Warren Spahn, the Braves' pitching choice for the first game.

Pulled Muscle Sept. 10
Skowron pulled a back muscle September 10 and hasn't been able to bend over as he would while fielding his position—without pain since. Neither he nor Mantle, still bothered by shin splints, made the trip to Boston for the final games of the regular season last weekend.

The opener stacks up as an all-southpaw pitching show at the start with Ed (Whitey) Ford (11-5) the likely Yankee choice against Spahn (21-11). Both are aces, but the choices also reflect respect for Stengel and Manager Fred Haney of the Braves for the left-handed batting power on both clubs—particularly with the right field seats so close in the Stadium.

Neither manager has named his opening lineup, but the Braves' starting nine is a little easier to figure than the Yankees'. With Skowron a question, Stengel might have to play Elston Howard at first, Andy Carey at third and rookie Tony Kubek in left field. If Skowron can play, Howard will wind up in left, with Kubek or Carey at third.

Some Discussion Ahead
The only likely changes in Haney's choice involve the Yankee pitcher. With a left-hander on the mound for the Yanks, the veteran Andy Paiko will be in right field. Joe Adcock at first and Wes Covington in left. Against a righthander, Haney could replace Pafko and Adcock, both right-handed hitters, with Bob Hazle and Frank Torre—with Hazle taking right and Covington shifting to left and Torre at first.

CARLISLE IS FAVORED TO RETAIN TITLE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Important weekend scholastic football games produced only one clear-cut contender for league honors, while games in most other areas raised new questions on possible leaders.

In the far-flung Western Conference powerful Lewistown stepped into the lead of the 31 Class A teams by defeating highly rated and previously unbeaten Tyrone, 13-7. Lewistown is now favored to go all the way.

In the American League, Boston tripped the Yankees 3-2, Cleveland socked the White Sox 5-3, but couldn't save Manager Kerby Farrell's job.

Farrell was ousted last night as the sixth-place Tribe finished in the second division for the first time since 1946 — due mostly to pitching injuries. They were sixth and Bobby Bragan, ousted earlier as manager of the Pirates, will replace Farrell.

Both batting titles were determined earlier, but Boston's Ted Williams pushed his winning mark to 388 with a double and single against the Yankees for his fifth AL crown. Only Ty Cobb, with 12, ever won more.

Cardinal Stan Musial won his seventh NL championship 351, tying ex-great Rogers Hornsby for second in the all-time league list behind Honus Wagner, who won eight.

Milwaukee's Hank Aaron, last year's NL batting champ (328), is the home run king with 44 and also leads in runs batted in with 132. The AL home run champ is Washington's Roy Sievers, with 42, who also scored in RBIs with 114.

Central—In the South Penn Conference Carlisle crushed Middletown 33-14 to forge ahead as a prime candidate to keep the league title it won last year.

Meanwhile, Williamsport — the team most likely to again win the Central Penn conference championship—smashed Coal Twp., 53-7, in a significant inter-district clash.

Coal Twp. had been regarded as a major threat for the East Penn Conference crown after beating defending champion Swoyersville in its first game.

West — Jeannette's loss now throws the WPIAL double-A race wide open. With only three weeks of play under its belt, the list of more than 35 eligible teams has already been trimmed by more than half.

Sharon was passed 3-0 over the weekend by Warren, Ohio. The club is still in the race for the WPIAL crown, but the team is not rated the power now that it had been counted.

Meanwhile, other WPIAL teams moving up for possible loop recognition are Butler, Uniontown and Washington, each with two WPIAL victories and no defeats.

Bragan will be signed for one year, but nobody said how much he will be paid. Farrell got about $25,000.

Farrell said Greenberg told him his one-year contract would not be renewed as they drove into Cleveland from the airport. They had flown home from Chicago, where a last-game victory over the White Sox left the Tribe in sixth place in the American League—its worst finish since 1946.

Hired Over Telephone
Greenberg said Bragan's reputation as a colorful personality should be an asset "as long as he exercises diplomacy and good judgment."

"I understand that he has a delightful sense of humor, too. That is something we can use around here," said Greenberg.

Bragan was fired at Pittsburgh three days after the orange pop incident, which occurred at a night game in Milwaukee.

Greenberg hired Bragan by phone Saturday. Bragan is in Cuba, managing the Almendares club in the Cuban Winter League. He and Greenberg will meet tomorrow in New York and will attend the World Series.

SAY SATELLITES MAY SOAR 2,000 MI. ABOVE EARTH

WASHINGTON (AP)—A research team today said American earth satellites may soar as high as 2,000 miles above the earth—500 miles higher than the previous maximum estimate.

Richard Tousey of the U. S. Naval Research Laboratory gave the new altitude estimate in a report prepared for an international conference designed to summarize and coordinate the rocket and earth satellite programs of various nations for the International Geophysical Year.

Attending the six-day parley opening today are delegates from 12 nations, including the United States and Russia, which are the only two nations planning to launch satellites. The other nations have programs designed to track and observe satellites, or programs for exploring the upper atmosphere with high-altitude rockets.

Russia previously has indicated it plans to reveal further details of its earth satellite program at the Washington meeting.

Researcher Tousey mentioned only casually that "perhaps" the American satellites might attain a height of 2,000 miles in their oval-shaped orbits. He offered no reason for the new estimate.

About a year ago when Naval Research Laboratory scientists raised their original 900-mile estimate to 1,500 miles, they said lowered estimates of the weight of the rocket-type launching vehicle, plus an improved performance outlook, appeared to justify the higher figure.

Thus, it's conceivable that still further improvements in the rocket weight and performance picture are now envisioned.

Six of the satellites are to be launched before the end of 1957 in December 1958, but no dates have yet been announced.

Boy Wins Tractor Driving Contest

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—David W. Groff, 18, West Grove, R. 1, Chester County, won the annual 4-H tractor driving contest Saturday at the Pennsylvania State University.

Groff won out over champions from 38 other counties in the state.

Winners of the next six places in the contest were: William Altomose, Kunkletown RD. 2; James Crawford, Jr., Tyrone RD. 1; Wayne Heebner, Norristown RD. 3; Lawrence Mills, York RD. 4; Lowell Friedline, Boswell RD. 2; and Charles Ite, Cambria County.

The seven boys became eligible to compete in the state tractor driving finals to be held at the farm show in Harrisburg next January.

Of the 40,686 foreign students in United States Schools for the 1956-57 academic year, Canada led with 5,379. China was second with 3,055 and Korea third with 2,307.

Claims Americans Pay "Terror Tax"

HARRISBURG (AP)—A labor columnist told Pennsylvania publishers today that Americans are paying a "terror tax" to underworld controlled unions.

"The underworld has operated a second government and has placed a terror tax on much of our food, clothing and construction, on building, transportation, shipping and even on our defense machinery by shaking down contractors that work for the atomic energy commission, the navy, the army and some of our defense outfits," declared Victor Riesel, nationally syndicated reporter.

Riesel, who was blinded last year by a racketeer terrorist, addressed the closing session of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers Assn. convention Saturday.

SOCIETY SAYS HANDICAPPED GOOD WORKERS

Handicapped persons are just as reliable, just as steady in attendance at their work, just as careful and just as efficient as able-bodied fellow workers if properly placed, says the Pennsylvania Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc.

The society, which endorses National Employ the Handicapped Week and is a member of the Governor's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped, says it properly placed job disability of the handicapped immediately disappears.

The society is close to the needs of handicapped persons who come to its 52 local affiliated societies for treatment and service.

In the last fiscal year these affiliates served 12,546 handicapped persons, of which number 926 were adults. In serving the handicapped these societies endeavor to correct disabilities and improve physical fitness of the patients so that they may have a more enriching future and that they may take a more prominent place in society and in the economic life of their communities.

To accomplish this, more than 40 different types of services are offered by a staff of 312 persons, of which 167 are part-time. The program of rehabilitation conducted by these societies is carried on through professional staffs and the service of consultants and experts in the particular field.

Bloom, Randall Exchange Barbs

HARRISBURG (AP)—A top Republican official says Gov. Leader "watered down" a statement approving President Eisenhower's action in sending federal troops to handle the Little Rock school integration situation.

"It is to be regretted," said George I. Bloom, GOP state chairman, in a weekend statement "that Gov. Leader watered down his approval by inferring that the President should have sent federal troops into Arkansas weeks ago."

But David V. Randall, the governor's secretary, replied that Leader "was one of the first public officials in the nation to speak out in approval of the President's action, in direct contrast to Mr. Bloom, who had his usual trouble determining whether he was for the president or against him."

RUSSIA FAILS TO CAPITALIZE ON SCHOOL CASE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Russians may not have gained as much as they hope from the Little Rock affair.

They made all the propaganda they could out of it, they used the photographs and the eyewitness accounts of violence in an obvious effort to hurt the United States. The point they tried to make — especially with the nonwhite majority of the human race — was that cruelty and intolerance are the rule of life in this country. This isn't true, of course.

For all that we may be going through a revolution in race relations, and for all that Negro-white dealings have seldom been satisfactory to either side, the races have somehow got along. Those Little Rock pictures tell a true, sad story. But:

Freedom For All

As everybody in this country knows a Negro can walk down the main street of any town or city without a thought of being molested. And, the Little Rock experience notwithstanding, American children do normally go to school without protection from bayonets.

The lesson gradually emerging from Little Rock is not—as the Communists would have it—that this is a country torn by racial violence.

Rather, it is that in spite of occasional missteps this is a country governed by law and not by the whims or prejudices of men.

As for the missteps in this country:

There was the "mob of extremists," as President Eisenhower put it over the weekend, which stopped some Negro adolescents from going to school at Little Rock. The mob was dispersed, and in short order, by federal troops.

Like Banks Count

Not—and this is important—because the President necessarily favors mixing of white and Negro pupils. He has been careful to avoid a strong personal opinion one way or the other. He called out troops on the ground that a federal court order directing integration was being flouted. The troops restored order. The court's decree is being carried out.

Even if Arkansas takes the step now under consideration by some officials — closing Little Rock's Central High School as a way of getting the federal troops out — it would be done by legal means. The State Legislature would be called on to take the action, and then presumably it would be fought out in the courts.

U. S. Depends On Laws

All this falling back on legal processes is far less dramatic, of course, than mob violence or military force. Will the point get across to the rest of the world that Americans are, after all, proving themselves a people who depend on courts and legislatures rather than fists and bayonets?

One hint that this may happen came yesterday from an Asian—India's Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon, who has often been pictured as anti-American, or at least as "neutral" with leanings toward the Communists. Menon said in a television interview that in the Little Rock affair: "I was impressed by the fact that no outstanding statesman of any party has come out in favor of mob rule."

It may surprise and dismay Americans that we have to prove we are not hoodlums. But if we do have to prove it, we seem, in spite of the Russians, to be making some headway.

Penn State Is Given $750,000

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Pennsylvania State University announced today receipt of a $750,000 bequest to its Behrend Center at Erie.

Dr. Eric A. Walker, university president, said the bequest was the largest received in Penn State history. It consisted of cash and securities from the estate of the late Otto F. Behrend of Erie, brother of the late Ernst R. Behrend, who gave his estate outside Erie for the center.

The Behrends were founders of Hammerhill Paper Co. The Behrend Center is one of 13 off-campus centers of the university.

The announcement did not say what use would be made of the bequest.

START NEW EGG LAYING CONTEST

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Agriculture Department announced today that it will supervise a new random sample egg laying contest here tomorrow.

The contest replaces the Pennsylvania official egg laying test which ended its 25th year in mid-September. The new program is expected to provide commercial poultrymen with sufficient data on their birds to measure egg productivity and other economic factors.

The change from the old-type test which had 13 birds per pen chosen by breeder-owners, was made in cooperation with the State Poultry Federation and the Pennsylvania State University.

Each breeder has two pens of 25 birds each in the random sample test. Owners paid an entry fee of $100 each and will pay for all feed consumed by their birds.

Throughout the new test, the number and weight of eggs produced by each bird will be recorded along with health conditions of each bird in an effort to supply data to breeders on individual bird production.

LABOR LEADER DIES

HARRISBURG (AP)—George F. Griffiths, prominent labor leader in Pennsylvania died of a heart attack Saturday at his home in nearby Camp Hill. He was 47.

Griffiths was manager of the central and western Pennsylvania district of the International Ladies Garment Workers and for the past two years was president of the Harrisburg Central Labor Council. He was a native of Pittsburgh.

A delicious first-course salad is made from green cabbage shredded and dressed with oil and vinegar, salt and pepper; anchovies; canned pimiento; crisp green pepper and celery.

News Briefs

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Romeo Celli, 61, cellist and president of Local 77, American Federation of Musicians, died yesterday at a hospital.

Celli, ill the past week with pneumonia, had been the local's president in the 1930s and was re-elected in 1954 and 1956. He worked with large pit orchestras at theaters.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30 (AP)—James F. Byrnes has been asked by Sen. Clark (D-Pa.) to retract a statement that crime is a daily occurrence in Philadelphia integrated schools.

Clark, former Philadelphia mayor, called for the retraction in a letter to Byrnes, who made the statement in a speech at Benetville, S.C. "I am confident that you will not want to conduct a debate on anything other than established facts," Clark said.

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—Labor has nothing to fear "if it will face realities and insist that its officers maintain a high standard of ethics," says Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.).

Morse, speaking yesterday at a conference of Dist. 9 of the United Steelworkers, said labor leaders should be "like Caesar's wife, above suspicion."

Morse urged the conference delegates to exercise their right to vote.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Police arrested two men yesterday and said they had broken a team transporting narcotics from New York. Officers said heroin valued at $8,000 was seized. The Special Investigations Squad raided a downtown first floor apartment and arrested Ceferino Arruiz, 23, and Filomeno Melendez, 33.

BALTIMORE (AP)—Pennsylvania entries pretty well swept the trophy table clean in American Legion drum and bugle corps competition at Memorial Stadium last night.

The Rolly Raiders of Philadelphia were first, the Musketeers of Upper Darby second, the Pittsburgh Rockets fourth, and the Wormleysburg Westshoremen fifth.

Third place? The New York Skyliners.

Take Steps To Ease Swine Brucellosis

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Agriculture Department today called for farmer support of a new voluntary program to eradicate swine brucellosis.

Under the new plan a survey will be made of the 48 state-inspected abattoirs receiving Pennsylvania hogs in anticipation of a voluntary blood testing program.

Local Graduate Writes Of U.N. Fight Against Disease

Editor's note:—Spurgeon Milton Keeny, author of "Half the World's Children" and Director of the Asian Regional Office, United Nations Children's Fund since 1950, has been tackling impossible jobs through most of his life. He grew up on a York County farm, graduated from Gettysburg College in 1914, and was a Rhodes scholar at Oxford. On March 26, 1956, he received an honorary LHD degree from Gettysburg in recognition of his outstanding talents and distinguished achievements. In 1944 he joined the UNRRA headquarters staff, was chief of its mission in Italy (1944-47), and chief of the IRO mission in Italy (1947-48). He has worked also for the U. S. State Department, the American Relief Administrator in Russia (1922-24) and the National Council of the YMCA. All royalties on "Half the World's Children" go to UNICEF.

All the world knows the failures of the United Nations. Its splendid successes are lost in the welter of chaos and contradiction that attend the meetings and decisions of the Security Council and the General Assembly. Chances are the great majority of Americans have no idea of the function of UNICEF, of the U. N.'s notable achievements.

Now in S. M. Keeny's "Half the World's Children" (Associated Press, $3.50), the reader can learn firsthand the warm story of an army without uniform that is engaged in the great fight against sickness and malnutrition through the length and breadth of Asia.

All Of Asia

Sam Keeny's saga carries the reader to every nook and cranny of Asia where UNICEF fights the incredible battle against plague, smallpox, yellow fever, malaria, yaws, trachoma, and a host of other crippling diseases a good has more formidable than the highly publicized Asiatic flu. Indonesia alone has more than 10 million cases of yaws. Infant mortality is fifty per cent. Elsewhere millions of people grind out their tragic existence with legs shriveled, ankles locked, noses and palates eaten away—all for lack of a single shot of penicillin. And this is just an infinitesimal part of the log.

"Half the World's Children" is in many ways a terrifying story, for these frightful horrors that plague a continent need not exist at all. But it is an inspiring story, too, which proves beyond doubt that

Accuse Father Of Molesting Girls

HARRISBURG (AP)—A Harrisburg postal employee was held in the Dauphin County prison today on years ago for psychological reasons, molesting of two young girls this summer along the Susquehanna River front here.

Police identified the man as Russell Dewitt Bowers, 22, who is the father of two daughters. He had been employed as a mail handler at the Paxton street terminal in Harrisburg.

City detectives Arthur E. Burley Jr., and Martin Watts said Bowers signed a statement admitting the acts. They added he was discharged from the Marine Corps four years ago for psychological reasons.

Arrest of Bowers Saturday ended a widespread investigation conducted by Burley and Watts. They said 65 persons were questioned as possible suspects during the last four months.

privileged children everywhere should have a better break in this closer-knit world in which we live. "Half the World's Children" shows how it can be done.

Pope Urges Wives To Obey Husbands

CASTEL GANDOLFO, Italy (AP) — Quoting St. Paul, Pope Pius XII has urged Catholic wives to do their husbands' bidding "just as the church is subject to Christ."

The pontiff spoke briefly at his Castel Gandolfo summer residence here yesterday to delegates to a world congress of Catholic women.

The Pope cited the Roman Catholic Church's attitude toward marriage, comparing it with the mystical union of Christ and the church. The pontiff urged his listeners to be subject to their husbands as the church is to Christ.

The State Executive Board, headed by Gov. Leader, set up new regulations for expense accounts aimed at paring costs.

At the same time Aud. Gen. Charles C. Smith ordered close scrutiny of expense accounts. He contended his agency has found widespread padding of accounts in making an item-by-item audit.

SYRAN CHIEFS IN DESPERATE PREDICAMENT

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—A handful of leaders in Syria are in a desperate predicament.

They do not want war and they cannot afford peace.

They fear the Communists; East and hate the democratic West.

They dream of annihilating Israel and live in dread of the Israelis.

They proclaim a passion for Arab unity and work to subvert the governments of their Arab neighbors.

They have been toying carelessly with the issue of war or peace. But there are indications now that they realize how dangerous the game has become. There are signs—slight but significant—that they are willing to experiment with a period of calm.

Situation Is Tense
How long they and their Arab neighbors can restrain themselves is anybody's guess.

Most Middle East observers would wager the restraint could not last long.

The Syrian regime was born of turmoil and exists on it. It does not seem secure enough yet to withstand the effects of any long period of tranquility.

The fate of peace-making overtures depends largely on the intentions and ambitions of a few men in Damascus.

First and foremost among these at present is the Syrian strong man, Lt. Col. Abdul Hamid Serraj, who obviously is the power behind the army chief of staff, Maj. Gen. Afif Bizry.

"Love For Power"
Serraj is a tough-looking, self-assured young man of about 32. He has no particular love for the Communists. He does have a love for power. This stocky, blue-jawed officer knows the risks Syr-

Eight State Women Will Be Honored

HARRISBURG (AP)—Eight Pennsylvania women will receive the Commonwealth's Distinguished Daughter medal in ceremonies Oct. 8.

Mrs. William S. Peace, chairman of the Distinguished Daughters of Pennsylvania, said the eight are: Annette Evans of Wilkes-Barre; Catherine Drinker Bowen of Bryn Mawr; Ruth Grigg Horting of Lancaster; Irene E. McDermott of Pittsburgh; Sister Marsha Pretzloff of Pittsburgh; Marian E. Markley of Macungie, Lehigh County; Rachel Mulford Winlock of Philadelphia; and Helen C. Bailey of Philadelphia.

16 LOSE LIVES ACCIDENTALLY OVER WEEKEND

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Sixteen persons met accidental deaths in Pennsylvania over the weekend, ten of them on the state's highways.

There was one death in a fire, and five other persons were killed through miscellaneous causes.

Victor Hammer, 53, an Altoona pipefitter, was fatally injured in a fall. Lawrence Jacurci, 27, was killed in an industrial accident at Hazleton. Mrs. Anna Zahar died of suffocation in a blaze at her home.

la takes with the future by leaning so heavily on Moscow. But he is willing to take them, confident that his intelligence network will keep Red politics under control. Serraj's men have been quite efficient thus far in keeping the opposition silent. Serraj knows that he still may wind up on the losing side if his flirtation with the Communists pushes the wealthy upper class Syrians to desperate action.

UPSETS MARK COLLEGE GRID ON SATURDAY

By ED CORRIGAN
The Associated Press
Tennessee Coach Bowden Wyatt—who could do no wrong a year ago—today found himself in the position of trying to pick up the pieces of a shattered dream in which his team would race through two straight all-victorious football seasons.

Wyatt, who went to the Vols from Arkansas after lifting the Razorbacks from the depths of the Southwest Conference, produced an undefeated team last year. Now things are different. Tennessee's record is 0-1. The Vols must beat Mississippi State this week if they hope to keep in contention for the Southeastern Conference crown.

Georgia Tech Tied
State should be no match for Wyatt's outfit. But neither was Auburn last Saturday. Yet the Tigers trotted off with a 7-0 decision hold Tennessee to six first downs and 84 yards.

Georgia Tech, which was rated the Vols main threat, could do no better than a 0-0 tie with Southern Methodist.

After a week's rest, Oklahoma, a superbman of college football, opens its bid for its 10th straight Big Eight championship against Iowa State. The Sooners also will be seeking their 43rd straight victory.

Irish Blank Purdue
Notre Dame meets Indiana Saturday and the word around South Bend is that Coach Terry Brennan is, temporarily, at least, off the spot. After a wretched 2-6 record last year the Irish began the long road back Saturday by blanking Purdue 12-0.

Out of the shambles of the Big Ten emerged one giant—at least for a week. Minnesota pulverized Washington 46-7, and this week tackles Purdue, so the Gophers should keep their record clean. They looked like the bonecrushers of old and if they can keep up full head of steam, the rest of the league teams can concentrate on fighting for second place.

Iowa, the 'have not' Rose Bowl representative of the Big Ten last year, rolled up a 70-14 victory over Utah State—its highest point production since 1914, but the opposition was weak.

Not too long ago, a Duke-Maryland game would go a long way toward settling the Atlantic Coast Conference championship. The two meet this week, but the Blue Devils will have heavy favorites. They just might go all the way to the title. They crushed Virginia 40-0 last week.

Maryland's Tommy Mont looks to be in for another bad season, although his club is not as bad as its 46-13 defeat at the hands of North Carolina State would indicate.

Rare are the surprises in the Ivy League but underdog Columbia shocked Brown 23-20 Saturday.

Penn State Wins
Penn State eked out a 19-14 victory over Penn and Pittsburgh edged past Oregon 6-3. A 22-yard scoring pass from Ivan Tonic to Art Gob in the final minute provided the difference for Pitt.

Penn State was stronger than Penn but the game hinged mainly on fumbles rather than the Nittany Lions' superiority. Penn quarterback Frank Ripert cracked a bone in his foot and will be sidelined for several weeks.

Lafayette Beats Mules
St. Vincent's, holding the best record among Pennsylvania colleges, rolled over Clarion Teachers 43-12 for its third straight win. Westminister, Pennsylvania's only unbeaten team a year ago, extended its record with a 12-0 win over Thiel.

Lafayette withstood a late Muhlenberg threat, 20-13 in the season opener for both.
